

Top 10 Important Benefits to Prepare and Pre-Pay for a Memorial or Monument

“Be assured that your monument memorial is a true reflection of the life you lived.”

1. Shared Decision

- ◆ You spend your whole life making critical decisions with your loved ones and preparing for things, why should this decision be any different.

2. Estate Planning is complete

- ◆ A monument is the last step in the death process. The Estate planning is not done until the memorial has been included.

3. Family won't be left guessing

- ◆ Unfortunately disputes arise as to the details of the monument or memorial. Avoid this confrontation by taking care of this before hand.

4. Life Insurance used for intended purposes

- ◆ Your life insurance is used for its intended purchases, which is to take care of those you love and care about.

5. Risk Free

- ◆ You get to see the finished product and it is all pre-paid and prepared before the time comes. All that is left is cost of engraving the final lettering, which is minimal.

6. Stress Free

- ◆ A Critical decision will not have to be made at such an emotional time. Becoming aware of your options before actually making any decisions will give you more ease when going through the design process.

7. Hedge against inflation and Financial Responsibilities

- ◆ No matter what happens, memorialization will be complete. We can't predict the future financially. Certain troubles can delay or indefinitely keep families from purchasing a proper memorial in a timely manner.

8. Option of Choice

- ◆ As time goes on your options for your memorialization are limited. Certain granites are not available any more. Space is becoming more and more limited. Restrictions on size, shape, color and design are increasing.

9. Lasting Legacy

- ◆ Memorialization has been a time honored tradition dating back forever. Having your families sacred ground chosen and identified with a memorial insures that your legacy and heritage will forever live on.

10. The process can be very Fun

- ◆ The design and decision process can often be fun believe it or not. It allows you to reflect on your life and discuss it with family and friends to come up with a way to best represent the life you lived.

“Peace of Mind is the Satisfaction of knowing your wishes are being fulfilled just as you would want them to be.”
